

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT CELL

The Student Development Cell, a support system for the holistic development of the students promotes quality in student life by enabling them to build up a personal profile. The council works in liaison with the respective Departments of the College and organizes events to help the students achieve academic goals. Through Student Development Cell, technical and professional exposure is given to all students.